

What Makes a Job Good or Bad? Standards of Good Work Revisited

April 3-8, 2018

Inter-University Center Dubrovnik

Organisers:

Dorothea Alewell, University of Hamburg (Germany)

Simon Fietze, University of Southern Denmark

Wenzel Matiaske, Helmut-Schmidt-University/University of the FAF Hamburg (Germany)

Draft Programme

Monday, April 2, 2018

19:30                    Early Bird Meeting
In front of the gate to the Old Town

Tuesday, April 3, 2018

10.00 - 10.15	Introduction Dorothea Alewell, Simon Fietze, & Wenzel Matiaske
10.15 - 11.00	What Makes for Good Quality Working Time in the Age of Fragmentation and Flexibility? Agnieszka Piasna, European Trade Union Institute
11.15 - 12.00	Examining the Gendered Nature of Emerging Forms of Precarious Work in Ireland Caroline Murphy, University of Limerick
12.00 - 14.00	Lunch break
14.00 - 14.45	Work in the Digital Age, and New Forms of Social Movement Barry Patrick Colfer & Florian Ranft, Policy Network
14.45 - 15.30	A Virtue Ethics Perspective on Motivation Ramsha Naeem, Lahore University of Management Sciences
15.30 - 15.45	Summary
From 16.00	Sightseeing and other activities

Wednesday, April 4, 2018

- 09.00 - 09.15      Introduction
Dorothea Alewell, Simon Fietze, & Wenzel Matiaske
- 09.15 - 10.00      Perceived Job Quality in German Minijobs. A Multidimensional Analysis of Work in Marginal Part-time Employment Relationships
Fabian Beckmann, Ruhr-University Bochum
- 10.15 - 11.00      Are New Standards of Good Work in German Academia Universal?
Irina Gewinner, Leibniz-University Hannover
- 11.15 - 12.00      The German Trade Unions' Campaign for "Good Work" (Gute Arbeit)
Walther Müller-Jentsch, Ruhr-University Bochum
- 12.00 - 14.00      Lunch break
- 14.00 - 14.45      Quality of Work, Sector of Employment and Age at Retirement
Tobias Wiß, Hertie School of Governance, Lisa Schmidhuber, Johannes Kepler University Linz, & Valeria Bordone, Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich
- 14.45 - 15.30      What Makes a Job Good Enough to Accept Migration. Personal Perspective on Job Attributes: The Case of German Professionals Working in the UK
Elena Samarsky, Jesus College, University of Oxford
- 15.30 - 16.45      Summary
- From 17.00        Sightseeing and other activities

Thursday, April 5, 2018

- |               |  |
|---------------|--|
| 09.00 - 09.15 | IntroductionDorothea Alewell, Simon Fietze, & Wenzel Matiaske   |
| 09.15 - 10.00 | Which Jobs Are Desirable? Occupational Prestige Ranking Depending on the Skill Content of OccupationsAurélien Abrassart, & Stefan C. Wolter, University of Bern |
| 10.15 - 11.00 | Employment as a Destination or a Springboard? Chinese Graduates' Subjective Interpretation of Good JobsMa Eddie, Lingnan University                             |
| 11.00 - 11.30 | Summary &amp; Closing   |